

Tyler Apartment Association Presents: “Ask the Expert”

Have you ever had questions about managing your income producing property, but didn't think it was important enough to call your attorney?

With over 48 years of experience, Vicki brings real life examples and information about managing your property. While she has managed portfolios of up to 10,000 units, she also owns and manages single family homes, so Vicki can talk about it all.

Come have dinner and conversation with our Expert!

Bring your questions, and let's get some answers!
