

Tyler Apartment Association Presents:

“Great Leaders and Bad Bosses... You Can Learn From Both”

This power packed session will provide insight to being a great leader! With actual examples of both leaders and bad bosses, Vicki will help you learn great techniques about working with your teams to achieve great success. There will be discussions about hiring the best, coaching and counseling, and even deciding when to terminate. We also spend some time talking about how to motivate your teams by identifying what’s important to them, and using that information to help them succeed.

“Fair Housing... It’s Not Just A Management Thing”

Intended for Maintenance teams. More and more fair housing cases are being filed regarding maintenance issues each year. While managers should also attend, this session focuses squarely on the maintenance side of the business. Actual examples of cases filed and their outcomes will be used to demonstrate how maintenance issues can evolve into Fair Housing complaints. Now that the Department of Justice and HUD are sharing information, we will also cover sexual harassment issues. Truly a team event, managers should join their maintenance team for a great afternoon of learning.
